

KLove benefits our neighborhood by providing good clean music and commentary. It is a great radio station with tremendous advantages. It is one of the few radio stations on the air that we feel comfortable to let our whole family listen today.

Without KLove would be a step back in civilized American society and continued degeneration of the moral fiber of the country.